

Valentine hearts

Materials

- Heart template (see last page)
- Pieces of pink and white wool felt
- Eline's Huis fabric "Red Roses"
- Scrap fabric red with white dots
- DMC embroidery thread: red, dark pink, light pink and white.
- Pieces of ribbon: Aspegren checkered ribbon, pink ribbon with red dots
- Beads and pompoms
- Buttons and crocheted flowers

White heart

- Trace the heart template twice on white felt.
- Use a pen with disappearing ink, to trace the smaller heart on one of the white pieces.
- Embroider this smaller heart with 2 strands of the dark pink thread with a running stitch.
- Put the two heart pieces together, right side out.
- Sew them together with a blanket stitch, using two strands of the light pink thread, start on the left side of the bottom point.
- When you sewed over the bottom point, you attach the little chain: make a knot in two strands of the light pink thread, go through the pom-pom, a pink wooden bead, and 4 small glass beads. Secure the thread on the inside of the heart.

- Go on with the blanket stitch until you reached the top. Put the piece of ribbon between the two heart pieces and continue blanket stitching, go also through the ribbon. Steek het lintje tussen de twee harten en ga
- Continue the blanket stitch until you have only an opening of about 3 cm.
- Fill up the heart fluffy and close the heart with a few more blanket stitches.

Pink heart
